People of the Sands

The Chehalis people historically occupied a large area within the Chehalis River watershed stretching from the foothills of the Cascade Mountains to the Pacific Ocean in Southwest Washington.

The Chehalis people have lived on a reservation within the watershed since the 1850s, but important historic and archeological sites remain scattered throughout the Tribe's aboriginal area. "Chehalis" is a collective name for several Salishan tribes that lived in the area.

Traditionally, the Chehalis people made their living in forestry, fishing, and hunting. Today, government services and tribal food and entertainment enterprises are the primary sources of employment on the reservation.
